

Answers to 'Why have you signed the 38% petition?'

Alistair m. 1/13 'any time Doctor Keilloh treated me I always felt he was a caring, thoughtful, and professional person. reinstate him !'

Alex P. 1/13 'Dr Keilloh is incredibly well regarded by his patients - just look at the comments on various petitions. Ridiculous that he is not able to care for his patients.'

Shirley and John h. 1/13 'Terrible outcome, but clearly Northallerton people will not give up trying to get our GP back where he belongs ..RE-INSTATEMENT !!'

Douglas B. 1/13 'This is clearly rough justice and takes little account of the circumstances. I think this man can be relied upon to serve as a peace time GP without compromising patient safety of the quality of care they receive. He should be reinstated, particularly when one considers the number of doctors working in the UK who have little English and uncertain qualifications.'

Sylvia B. 1/13 'It makes no sense to deprive the NHS of a fully functioning, UK trained GP who is most unlikely ever to be in a war situation again. Re-instate Dr Keilloh so that he can continue serving the NHS for the rest of his career.'

steve k. 1/13 'Derek Keilloh is an excellent doctor. The local community should not be deprived of his skills. He has been unfairly treated and it appears as he is a political scapegoat.'

John W. 1/13 'The GMC claim that he has been removed from the register "to maintain public confidence in the medical profession". This statement is at odds with the enormous and unprecedented vote of confidence his patients have shown they have in him.'

Isobel D. 1/13 'our community is being denied access to the care of a conscientious doctor'

Anne T. 1/13 'HE WAS MADE A SCAPE GOAT'

Steven H. 1/13 'The MPTS cannot judge what Dr Keilloh did or did not know - he was there, they were not - how can they decide anything on that basis.'

Dorothy H. 1/13 'This is abominable - he is one of the very best Doctors I have ever come across and should be allowed to return to caring for his patients.'

David B. 1/13 'This doctor is a good dedicated doctor, very compassionate and devoted to his patients, and his profession, allowances should be made for the fact that he was working in a war zone under great pressure.'

Margaret y. 1/13 'To help Dr Keilloh to be reinstated'

Mark H. 1/13 'What happened in the theatre of war should stay in the context of war. Dr Keilloh has proved to be one of the best GP's in North Yorkshire.'

PETER B. 1/13 'A first class doctor, whose absence from the profession is missed'

Valerie E. 1/13 'To support the former patients of Dr Keilloh in their campaign to have him reinstated as their trusted and valued GP'

Jean M. 1/13 'he is my local family GP and I think he has been treated badly.'

John S. 1/13 'because I think he is a very competent GP and a very pleasant family man.'

Josephine S. 1/13 'because I think he is an excellent doctor.'

Georgina G. 1/13 'Brilliant GP who has been unfairly dealt with and should be re-instated'

Michael K. 1/13 'How can someone such as Sir David Nicholson who has patently done wrong still be in his post when an innocent doctor caught up in a mayhem not of his own making be dismissed for doing his job. It beggars belief. Come on MPTS get your act together.'

Barbara H. 1/13 'A warm and very caring GP. Deserves to be re-instated without delay'

Julia B. 1/13 'He really helped me with my back problems'

Mark B. 1/13 'He is [was] a great GP, who should be here in Northallerton at work - doing a great job!'

Kathleen F. 1/13 'Brilliant doctor and very well thought of in Northallerton. Please help to try and get him reinstated'

Olivia L. 1/13 'I have seen Keilloh on several occasions and think he is a fantastic GP! I do not believe for one second he would intentionally harm anyone under any circumstance!'

Bryan W. 1/13 'Because Dr Keilloh is a very good doctor and should be back at work in Northallerton.'

Sally H. 1/13 'Totally unfair that this man has been struck off for this one incident. So many doctors have made many mistakes are still practising.....'

Gill C. 1/13 'To support Derek and his family.'

Angela C. 1/13 'I have signed the campaign register because Dr Keilloh looked after my husband superbly when he was ill.'

Drew C. 1/13 'He looks after my grandma when she is sick.'

Ann W. 2/13 'Because what happened to Dr Keilloh is unjust and needs to be rectified.'

Mary I. 2/13 'I am so grateful to Dr. Keilloh. The best G.P. I have had.'

Katie O. 2/13 'I am signing from New Zealand. Dr Keilloh was my mother's doctor. He was a wonderful G.P. and the NHS needs him.'

Brigid I. 2/13 'Because he realised that a family member had a serious illness when other doctors had failed to do so.'

Patricia R. 2/13 'To stop the injustice of a very hardworking competent doctor from losing his livelihood and a community losing a doctor they trust and believe in'

Alice A. 2/13 'Tony Blair should be paying for his unforgivable mistake and not Dr. Keilloh, who, I believe, is a good doctor.'

Ashley d. 2/13 'Please support my GP to get his registration to practise back'

Andrew d. 2/13 'please support my GP to regain his registration, this is a miscarriage of justice'

Helen S. 2/13 'Dr Keilloh cared for and about my Mother -in- law. He always found the time to listen..'

Margaret B. 2/13 'We must keep fighting for Dr Keilloh...no let up please'

Iain S. 3/13 'If you are called to treat a patient. You could surmise anything but to accuse you need proof of wrong doing. It appears that his treatment of the person in question was good. Should he then suffer for the actions of others? The committee should hope that they are never put in such a position'

Jim P. 3/13 'I strongly support Doctor Keilloh and his quest to be reinstated as a Doctor and return to serving the people he took an oath to help and treat. To arrive at the verdict to strike him off by the balance of probabilities is a farce. The onus of proof should be beyond all reasonable doubt.'

Joyce P. 3/13 'This man's career has been taken away from him when all he was trying to do was save life, not take life. I support the campaign to have Dr. Keilloh reinstated and returned to his proud vocation of helping people.'

Pauline g. 3/13 'DR derek keilloh was excellent when my husband was seriously ill and gave us all the information and support we needed.'

David D. 3/13 'TO GAIN JUSTICE FOR DEREK'

Frances C. 3/13 'Dr Keilloh is an excellent doctor always very pleasant and caring, and always listens to what your problem is and explains everything clearly.'

Alex K. 3/13 'I can't believe the decision to strike this doctor off the register. It is un-just and totally wrong. The people who came to this decision should be investigated to examine their competence to give a fair and honest judgement.'

Kathryn W. 3/13 'Dr Keilloh is a very good doctor who has looked after my Aunty very well. I followed the story in the paper and was shocked at the injustice of this decision. 100% he should be reinstated!'

Paul W. 3/13 'Signing this petition as I think he should definitely be reinstated and we want him back ASAP. Shouldn't have been struck off in the first place.'

Jean R. 3/13 'We need all the Good GPs that we can get'

Krzysztof G. 4/13 'Because he is a good doctor'

heather F. 4/13 'moral support for him and his family'

Paul G. 4/13 'This country needs excellent doctors.'

Elaine B. 4/13 'This country needs dedicated doctors'

Jeremy N. 4/13 'It seems unlikely a junior doctor could conduct a conspiracy to cover up abuse of army prisoners. There is obviously more to this story than we have been told.'

Jim R. 4/13 'As has been said, Dr Keilloh is an excellent GP, whereas the MPTS seems impervious to local concerns and to its own fallibility'

Alexe R. 4/13 'Dr Keilloh was my husband's doctor. He was amazing, skilful, professional, approachable. We miss him at the practice.'

Tracey v. 5/13 'Dr Keilloh is a kind, compassionate man who cares for each patient he treats. He treats them as individuals and people, not just a number.'

James S. 5/13 'What a waste of a good dr'

Elizabeth J. 6/13 'Because I feel the GMC's decision to be unjust'

John L. 6/13 'Injustice.'

Neil H. 6/13 'This seems like an injustice?'

Lisa P. 7/13 'Its difficult to disprove such institutions, Sometimes you are just guilty in their eyes and are scapegoat of the day

John G. 7/13 'Sounds like Dr. Keilloh is being treated very badly'

Robert H. 7/13 'I believe Derek has been truthful: and that it is wrong that the GMC uses such a low standard for proof for such a serious matter.'

Delia T. 9/13 'Dr Keilloh is a very kind, caring, doctor, who takes time to listen. He should never have been struck off the medical board, I feel so sad about it. I as one of his patients in the past respect him for all is support he gave me over my illness, he was always there for me. I hope that the GMC will re-instate him he's a fantastic doctor who is one in a million. Good luck to all his family x'

Laura W. 9/13 'he's the best doctor I've ever had, he really helped me and I would like him back!'

Helen C. 9/13 'I never met Dr Keilloh as a patient but I know many friends who were and they spoke highly and it is a shame to loose such a highly regarded doctor.'

Pamela H. 10/13 'Another unfair outcome to register'

FRANCIS M. about 11/13 'I believe that Derek did his best in an impossible situation, and that's all anybody can do.'

Paul E. about 11/13 'Derek has been treated extremely harshly for something he maintains he had no knowledge of. He is an excellent GP and does not deserve to have his livelihood stripped away from him.'

Brian M. about 11/13 'A member of my family was a patient in this GP's practice. I have no reason to believe that he is anything less than an excellent community doctor.'

Leah S. about 11/13 'great doctor'

John L. about 12/13 'A good Doctor wasted. For what? and for Why? The end result of a professional disciplinary process so confounded and confused, it seems to serve only itself avoiding any duty towards the patient or the practitioner.'

Eleanor R. about 12/13 'I strongly believe that Dr Keilloh should be allowed to return to work. As a young in-experienced Doctor he was failed on many levels.'

David A. about 12/13 'Once again an example of the disgraceful treatment of our armed forces personnel for the sake of 'political correctness'. and YES; I am aware of the council's findings/statements. Convicted murderers and rapists receive more lenient treatment in our 'soft touch' justice system.'

Jaz D. 12/13 'Derek, was my supervisor whilst I was in my training. Having worked as a junior doctor in the UK. I can only echo the responsibility and the lack of guidance that is often placed upon us let alone dealing and working in war zone. I have observed Derek in numerous patient consultations he has been an exceptional trainer to a lost junior and delivered best patient care, Often patients would see me only because they couldn't get to see Derek. This is a true testament of his care.'

Christopher N. 12/13 'First class doctor and man. Should be back doing his job not being a pawn in a political game.'

Steve L. 12/13 'I am currently working alongside Derek at the moment and his professionalism is of the highest standard'

Anjum s. 12/13 'It's obvious that a professional GP should not be struck off for a situation that he was actively trying to help. A community should not lose a first class GP.'

John B. 12/13 'simply for justice'

Andrew C. 1/14 'I believe Derek to be innocent'

Thomas H. 1/14 'We live in a scapegoat world and it needs to stop. It's time for common sense and justice.'
